

Summary of license conditions for a single event - public performance of works at a family event

The terms listed below do not constitute a license but rather a summary of the terms of the license. the license to be granted to the user may include additional terms.

The type of license

blanket

The type of use

Use as part of a family event such as a wedding, henna, birthday, bar/bat mitzvah, brit, party and/or any other ceremony, with the exception of an event of a business nature organized by companies, workers' committees, etc. for which a separate license arrangement will be required.

The rights included in the license

public performance

Royalty payment date

Up to 72 hours before the date of the event.

LICENSE LIMITATIONS

- The license does not include rights in the master, performance rights and moral rights;
- Do not use any protected work for advertising, election, marketing, sales promotion, promotion purposes, product/brand/name/service, sponsorship, etc. of licensee or of third parties and/or for any other commercial use in a way that creates a direct and clear connection between a protected work and/or protected works and a product/brand/service/sponsorship, etc., unless licensee has received the creator's and Acum's permission in advance in writing to do so.
- The license is not transferable and/or checkable, and the licensee may not transfer it to third parties or grant third parties licenses to use the works.